Dear Parents/ Caregivers,

Congratulations! Your son/ daughter is invited to represent the College at the 2017 Sydney Royal Agriculture Show. Cost for the excursion is $100 and needs to be paid to the front office by Tuesday 14th March.

Permission notes need to be returned to Student Reception Umina Campus by Tuesday 14th March.

Mrs Briggs Mr McKay and Mr Unsworth will be supervising the excursion. Students need to be at the school farm at 9.00 Sunday 2nd April or 7.30am Monday 3rd April. Transport to the show is either in the school truck with Mr Unsworth /McKay or in the school ute with Mrs Briggs. The female students will be returning by car to Woy Woy Station Saturday evening 8th April accompanied by Mrs Briggs. Remaining boys will return with Mr McKay by rail on Sunday afternoon.

Sunday and Monday cattle are transported to the show, set up camp and cattle settle in. Tuesday will involve weighing cattle in. Thursday and Friday includes the Pure bred and Trade Cattle show. Saturday includes Pig Judging.

We will be staying onsite. Students will need to bring a swag, pillow, torch, a note pad and 2 pens and a mess kit – plate, bowl, cup, knife, fork, spoon and a tea towel.

Dress for the trip will include a school uniform shirt or show team shirt with decent jeans and boots. No other clothing will be acceptable. Thursday dress will include jeans with a show team shirt or your own suitable collared shirt and a hat. Leather boots or shoes are also essential. Students also need to bring an old set of clothes in which they can wash and prepare cattle. Wet weather gear is essential in case of rain.

This will be a valuable excursion where students learn the professionalism of show competition at an elite level. We will be representing the whole college at this event so behaviour, manners and listening skills need to be at the highest level.
